

From: Jerry Myszkowski [mailto:jeromemyszkowski@sbcglobal.net]

Sent: Friday, March 30, 2007 2:08 PM

To: OSComments

Subject: docket # USCIS 2006-0044

It is inconcivable that the government would increase the fees for the services related to adoption. Fees should be totaly subsidised as adoption is a public service being performed by the people willing to take on the responsibilities of parents. The government should make adoption easier as it actually decreases the requirement for public assistance for these children.