

Why should the fees be increased, If to my understanding congress is willing to offer financial assistance and help so there would be no need for this very hefty increase? I think that this increase has is all about hate! The person incharge of this area is definately anti-immigrant and thats why they refuse help from congress and want to put the burden on the people.

I became a U.S. citizen on January 19th 2007 at one of the Cerimonies held at Montebello, CA. I can not tell you howe hard and deficult it was to come up with the $400.00 which is the current application fee. So now that they plan to double it, Its like Oh my GOD this people do not want us here. Thats the way I felt. Instead of you encouraging current legal residents to become more apart of this great nation, give them incentives or special assistance to become a full part of our country. You send them a very clear message. We don't want you here anymore. Have you all forgot that we all migrated here? Where is the In GOD we trust now? That is so anti-american. This is not what America ir being an American is about! I hope you reconsider and lower the cost instead.

Yours truly,

Santiago Ricalde

New U.S. Citizen as of January 19th 2007.

I am not going anywhere. I have rights now not only preivages.
