

To whom it may concern:

As a naturalized US citizen, I would like to express my concern about the proposed increased fees for green card and naturalization services. It's too much of a burden to most of the people who have been here legally and want to assimilate in the American society.

Bang Nguyen