Director, Regulatory Management Division:

It is highly immoral to increase the fees without reducing the processing time for each applications/petitions. Business people must be more taxed than ordinary people. For example USCIS charge only $190.00 to employe and alien worker in US who is normally being paid $50,000 plus. USCIS charge $400.00 to apply to become a US citizen from an ordinary LPR person. USCIS should charge more from business people and companies since they are making more money. It is unfair and un ethical to increase the fee so as to affect the ordinary people. We need to remember Emma Lazarus when she said "Give me your tired, your poor, Your huddled masses yearning to breathe free, The wretched refuse of your teeming shore. Send these, the homeless, tempest-tossed, to me: I lift my lamp beside the golden door."

Sincerely,
