My name is Piroasca Barros , I am a single mother with 4 children and it is just unreasonable to pay such high price to be able to get an American Citizen Certificate without having to sacrifice other necessary things like food , paying rent , paying my electric bill and other expense that i have with the salary that i have . I think that there should be some kind of control over the amount of prices over this applicatio most of us have children and it seems that the community has no saying in this process .
