27 March 2007

Dear Citizenship and Immigration Services and Department of Homeland Security,

I understand that it with last fall's election it may appear to be open season on tax-payers, but to subject the perspective parents of adopted children to such draconian increases in fees is unconscionable!

Out of hearts of love and generosity, these couples put themselves through personal invasion and expense, jump through incredible hoops of bureaucratic red tape, suffer through months of heart-breaking setbacks and delays. The LAST thing they need is to have big brother come along and indiscriminately raise the fees! If you are short of funds, stop wasting money on global warming studies, the mating habits of fruit flies and affects of classical music on alligators. Stop funding the lifestyle of illegitimate parents while penalizing loving and caring adoptive parents!

Leave these dear people alone! They are already spending thousands upon thousands of their personal resources for the right to love and nurture a child.

Thank you,
