

The new fee increases, especially those that apply to non-employment related documents, will result in increased expense to USCIS and the Government in general. Aliens have difficulty raising the funds to apply for benefits and often leave out children or spouses. This result in more individuals who have no legal status and later end up in expensive removal proceedings merely because they are no longer eligible for a benefit.

Leave fees where they are. Congress needs to create a permanent solution to the problem.

Law Offices of Malik D. Freeman
A Professional Corporation
Malik D. Freeman
2160 Durfee Avenue, El Monte, CA 91733

Voicemail: 213 447 2302

---

Get your own web address.

Have a HUGE year through Yahoo! Small Business.